Welfare measures for disabled persons

3988. DR. C. NARAYANA REDDY: Will the Minister of SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPLOYMENT be pleased to state :

(a) whether it has been brought to the notice of Government that in United States, the term 'Handicap' is not used to refer to disabled persons;

(b) whether it is a fact that the facilities like special ramps, elevators etc., are provided for them in United States; and

(c) if so, whether there is any proposal with Government to adopt some of these welfare measures in the country?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (DR. SANJAY PASWAN): (a) and (b) The Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment has no specific information regarding non-usage of term 'Handicap' in United States and details of the facilities provided for persons with disabilities in United States.

(c) (i) The Persons with Disabilities Act, 1995 provides for both preventive and promotional aspects of rehabilitation like education, employment and vocational training, job reservation, research and manpower development, creation of barrier-free environment, rehabilitation for persons with disability, establishment of homes for persons with severe disability, redressal mechanism, etc. The Act already provides for creation of barrier free infrastructure in transport sector, roads and public buildings by the appropriate government within the limits of their economic capacity and development.

(ii) Action to create barrier free facilities for persons with disabilities in public building, on roads and in transport has been initiated by various authorities in Central Government. The Urban Development Ministry has prepared Model Building Blaws and guidelines for construction of barrier free buildings and circulated the same to all States/UTs for adoption. While old buildings are being modified to facilitate access to persons with disabilities, instructions have been issued to Central Public Works Department (CPWD) and other agencies to incorporate barrier free features in the designs for new buildings The efforts of making public buildings barrier-free is a continuous process and progress depends on the resources available.
